

Kety Vandervelde

Kety has been dancing since the age of 5. She grew up dancing Ballet, Jazz, Contemporary, and Modern at “Bat Dor” School of Dance in Beer Sheva, Israel. Through which she received her certifications with The R.A.D (Royal Academy of Dance, London UK) between 2006-2009. After 3 years of military service in the IDF (Israeli Defense Forces); Kety moved to Jackson, Mississippi in 2014 to train with Ballet Magnificat. At Ballet Magnificat she trained in Vaganova technique, taught, danced, and performed before moving to Grand Junction with her husband in 2019. She is excited to be here on the Western Slope and training dancers for Absolute Dance Company.
