

Hikari Jacobson

Hikari Jacobson is from San Francisco, California. She is a professional ballerina with our company Colorado West Performing Arts. She has taught ballet technique, pointe, repertoire, conditioning, tap and tumbling. She enjoys working with students of all ages, from the youngest of kids, to adult students. She loves building connections with her students, and seeing how dance class brings confidence and happiness to so many people. She is excited to share her knowledge with her students at Absolute Dance.
